ANCESTRY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

1. ROBERT CUSHMAN, the Pilgrim, was baptized at Rolvenden, County Kent, England, February 9, 1577/8. His parents were Thomas Couchman of Rolvenden, husbandman, and Elinor Hubbard, who were married at Rolvenden July 18, 1568.

He married first in the parish of St. Alphage, Canterbury, July 31, 1606, Sara Reder, "who dwelt within the precincts of the Cathedral." She died at Leyden, Holland, October 11, 1616, and he married second at Leyden June 5, 1617, Mary (Clark) Singleton, widow of Thomas Singleton.

In 1605 he became a freeman of Canterbury, the record of his admission describing him as Robert Couchman "grosser." In the record of his second marriage at Leyden he is referred to as woolcomber.

In the great struggle for religious freedom, a group of "Separatists" or "Dissenters" residing in the north of England fled to Holland in 1609 to escape the prevailing persecutions of the Church and the Crown. Robert Cushman of Kent was among those who removed to Holland. After a few years residence in the Dutch city of Leyden, these Pilgrims realized that in course of time they would become merged with the Dutch and as a consequence their identity would thus become lost. They determined to establish a colony in the New World and delegated Robert Cushman and John Carver to return to England to negotiate with the Merchant Adventurers in London to settle in the colony which they were planting in Virginia. As principal agent of the Pilgrims, Robert Cushman made several trips to England and after long and difficult negotiation a patent was obtained. Permission was also obtained from King James to enjoy liberty of conscience in the New World.

After surmounting many discouragements, a company of Pilgrims numbering 102 persons set sail in the Mayflower from Plymouth, England, for the unknown wilderness. After a long and arduous voyage they landed at Plymouth in New England in November, 1620. Organization of the venture that was to play so vital a role in the founding of a Nation was accomplished largely by the business sagacity and perseverance of Robert Cushman as business agent of the Pilgrims. Destiny, however, did not place him among the immortal passengers aboard the Mayflower, the vessel that was destined to become so famous.

Nevertheless, he did come to the Plymouth Colony the following year aboard the Fortune, accompanied by his fourteen-year old son Thomas. He soon returned to London to report to the Merchant Adventurers regarding the state of affairs in the Colony. Expecting to return to Plymouth for permanent settlement, he left his son in care of the family of Governor Bradford. Business interests of the Colony detained him in London for some time and while making preparations to return in a ship about to sail for Plymouth he died in January or February 1625.

While at Plymouth, although not a minister, he delivered a discourse in the form of a sermon on "The Sin and Danger of Self Love." This sermon has become quite noted for its ability and the fact that it was the first sermon delivered in New England to be printed in London.

Regarding antecedents of Robert Cushman, an interesting article is printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, April 1914, volume 68, page 184, under title of "Genealogical Research in England."

2. THOMAS CUSHMAN, son of Robert, baptized in the parish of St. Andrew, Canterbury, England, February 8, 1607/8; died at Kingston, near Plymouth, Massachusetts, December 11, 1691. Married at Plymouth, Massachusetts, probably about 1636, Mary Allerton, born at Leyden, Holland, June 1616; died at Plymouth, Massachusetts, November 28, 1699; daughter of Isaac and Mary (Norris) Allerton.

Thomas Cushman came to Plymouth with his father in the Fortune in 1621. Upon his father's return to London he was left in care of the family of Governor Bradford. He was of considerable influence in the Colony and held the office of ruling elder in the Plymouth Church for over forty-two years. He is usually referred to as Elder Thomas Cushman.

Mary Allerton, wife of Thomas Cushman, came to Plymouth in the Mayflower with her parents when she was about four years of age. She lived to be eighty-three years of age and was the last survivor of the famous Mayflower passengers. It is through descent from her father, Isaac Allerton, that all descendants of Thomas Cushman are eligible to membership in The Society of Mayflower Descendants.

3. ELEAZER CUSHMAN, son of Thomas, born Kingston, Massachusetts, February 20, 1656/7. Married at Plymouth, Massachusetts, January 12, 1687/8, Elizabeth Coombs, born Boston, Massachusetts, November 30, 1662; died 1710; daughter of John and Elizabeth (-----) (Barlow) Coombs. The latter was widow of Thomas Barlow of Boston.
4. JOHN CUSHMAN, son of Eleazer, born Plymouth, Massachusetts, August 13, 1690. Married at Plymouth, Massachusetts, January 19, 1715, Joanna Pratt, born Plymouth, Massachusetts, October 26, 1690; daughter of John and Margaret (-----) Pratt.

ANCESTRY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

5. CHARLES CUSHMAN, son of John, born Plympton, Massachusetts, circa 1720; died Rutland, Vermont, September 1, 1791. Married at Bridgewater, Massachusetts, December 10, 1739, Mary Harvey; died Georgia, Vermont, January, 1810. Mary Harvey probably was granddaughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Willis) Harvey of Bridgewater, Massachusetts.

After their marriage Charles and his wife settled at Norwich, Connecticut, where they brought up their family and where he worked in iron and carried on a forge. Subsequently he removed to Milford, Massachusetts, but remained there only one year. About 1764 he joined the migration that was taking place northward through the Connecticut River valley and settled at Bennington, a town in southwestern Vermont. Charles and his wife removed to Rutland and were living in the family of their deceased son, Lieutenant Isaac Cushman, as early as 1784. They probably came to Rutland before the death of their son, who died in the Revolutionary Army the year previously.

6. ISAAC CUSHMAN, son of Charles, born, probably at Norwich, Connecticut, June 5, 1745; died Rutland, Vermont, May 26, 1783. Married (place and date unknown) Lois -----.
Although proof has not been found, circumstantial evidence suggests that her maiden name may have been Lois Dillis.

Lieutenant Isaac Cushman served in the Revolutionary War, responding to alarms during the years 1778-79-80-81. He was lieutenant in Captain John Smith's company, Colonel Seth Warren's 15th Vermont Militia, the famous regiment known as the Green Mountain Boys. As ensign, he was in command of a company of militia belonging to Rutland on an expedition to Ticonderoga in March, 1780, at time of the invasion of Skeensborough Fort. Later in the year an expedition to Fort Vengeance was under his command.

7. ETHIEL CUSHMAN, son of Isaac, born Rutland, Vermont, March 10, 1771; died Pulaski, Michigan, February 27, 1852. Married, probably at Rutland, Vermont, March 31, 1791, Anna Fenton, born, probably at Greenwich, Massachusetts, April 12, 1772; died Pulaski, Michigan, September 17, 1848; daughter of Lieutenant Joseph and Sarah (Steele) Fenton.

The foregoing pedigree of Ethiel Cushman was compiled chiefly from the Cushman Genealogy by Henry Wyles Cushman, published in 1855. The meager information therein relative to Ethiel Cushman (page 343) has been greatly augmented by research in public libraries, assembly of family records and gleanings from old family letters.

Some errors appear in the 1855 genealogy. One error in particular is in the spelling of Ethiel's name. By examination of his known autograph it is apparent that he spelled his name Ethiel, not Ethel, as spelled in the Cushman Genealogy.

The first of these is the fact that the United States is a young nation, and that its history is a history of growth and development. The second is the fact that the United States is a nation of immigrants, and that its history is a history of the struggle for a better life.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The third is the fact that the United States is a nation of free men, and that its history is a history of the struggle for freedom. The fourth is the fact that the United States is a nation of law, and that its history is a history of the struggle for justice.

The fifth is the fact that the United States is a nation of progress, and that its history is a history of the struggle for a better future.

The sixth is the fact that the United States is a nation of peace, and that its history is a history of the struggle for peace.

The seventh is the fact that the United States is a nation of unity, and that its history is a history of the struggle for unity.

The eighth is the fact that the United States is a nation of hope, and that its history is a history of the struggle for hope.

The ninth is the fact that the United States is a nation of love, and that its history is a history of the struggle for love.

BIOGRAPHY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

Ethiel Cushman was a lad at the age of five years when the Declaration of Independence was signed. During the Revolutionary War his father, Isaac Cushman, responded to alarms from time to time and was lieutenant of a company of Vermont militia belonging to Rutland. Lieutenant Isaac Cushman died in the Army May 26, 1783. At that time Ethiel was not quite twelve years of age.

Isaac Cushman came to Rutland, Vermont, about 1770 and settled on a farm three-fourths of a mile from the village of Rutland. Ethiel Cushman, his only son in a family of five children, was born on the farm March 16, 1771. At his father's death Ethiel inherited the farm and in 1791 married Anna Fenton, who had come to Rutland from Massachusetts with her mother after her father's death.

Anna Fenton's father, Lieutenant Joseph Fenton, was also a Revolutionary War soldier. He enlisted as private in the Revolutionary Army from Greenwich, Massachusetts, May 1, 1776, and was promoted to lieutenant in 1788. He was reported killed March 29, 1780. Anna's great-grandparents, William and Ann Fenton, came from Ardstraw, county Tyrone, Ireland, before 1720 and settled in the Irish Presbyterian colony at Rutland, Massachusetts.

The farm near the village of Rutland, Vermont, was the residence of the Cushman family for sixty years. It was home to five generations, as Charles Cushman, Lieutenant Isaac's father, came to live on the farm for the last few years of his life. Twenty-one children were born on the farm, to wit: four of Lieutenant Isaac's five children, Ethiel's ten children and seven of Joseph's ten children.

In 1813 Ethiel's eldest daughter, Sarah Steele, married Henry Goss Walker of Middlebury, New York. They first settled at Middlebury, Vermont, but in 1817 removed to Middlebury, Wyoming County, New York. Middlebury, New York, became the village of Wyoming about 1821.

In June, 1817, Joseph Fenton, Ethiel's only son to marry, married Rebecca Green of Ashburnham, Massachusetts, a school-teacher. Joseph brought his bride home to the farm at Rutland.

In December, 1817, Ethiel's second daughter, Lois, married Job Sherman Junior of Lanesboro, Massachusetts. In 1818 they also settled at Middlebury, New York, which later became Wyoming.

In 1821 Ethiel's third daughter, Jennette, married Gerard Fitch and as early as 1826 they, too, were living at Wyoming.

BIOGRAPHY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

Isaac Cushman, Ethiel's eldest son, likewise went to Wyoming County, New York, but died unmarried at Wright's Corners, a village north of Wyoming, in 1826, at age thirty.

Ethiel's five younger children died in childhood while the family was still living on the farm near Rutland.

In the spring of 1831 Ethiel and his son Joseph left the Vermont farm and with their families followed the families of Ethiel's married daughters to Wyoming County, New York, where they settled on a farm in Covington Township, Wyoming County, near the village of Wyoming. With their household goods doubtless loaded in covered wagons and accompanied by their wives and Joseph's five surviving children, the eldest of whom was a boy ten years of age and the youngest a baby two or three months old, they made the trip overland from central Vermont to western New York, a journey of over two hundred miles. Ethiel and his wife and the families of their four married children now were all living in Wyoming County, New York.

In 1842 Ethiel and Joseph exchanged their farm for property in the village of Wyoming and another farm on the stage road to Batavia. They occupied the property in the village for about two years, when they again sold their possessions and in the spring of 1844 migrated to Jackson County, Michigan, where they settled on a farm of 160 acres in Pulaski Township, about two miles south of the village of Concord. The farm borders the south shore of a small lake still known as Cushman Lake.

Joseph's twenty-two year old son Isaac, accompanied by his thirteen year old brother Charles, had preceded them to Michigan and purchased the farm. Years later it was recorded in a letter written to this writer by Charles that: "they made this removal by team overland in 1844, arriving at Concord on the 16th day of March." Imagine the fortitude of these hardy pioneers undertaking such a hazardous journey so early in the spring, with such old persons and young children in the party. Ethiel then was about seventy-three years of age, his wife about seventy-two and Joseph's youngest child about four.

As the early arrivals along the eastern coast explored the wilderness to the west and discovered lands more fertile than those along the rugged seaboard, a migration inland set in, which continued through many decades. One stream of this migration, comprising settlers from eastern Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island, converged in the Connecticut River valley and flowed north into Vermont, then to western New York and on to the states westward, each wave of sturdy pioneers penetrating farther into the wilderness. Successive generations of the Cushman family followed this course of migration from Plymouth Rock in Massachusetts to Vermont, to western New York and on to southern Michigan.

BIOGRAPHY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

Commencing early in the 1820's and continuing for about three decades there was an influx of settlers into southern Michigan. These pioneers were mostly farmers and more than half of them came from western New York. The Joseph Fenton Cushman branch and the Fitch branch of the Cushman family joined this migration to Michigan, settling on nearby farms in Jackson County, near the village of Concord. The Walker and Sherman branches remained in Wyoming County, New York. The Sherman branch, however, eventually became extinct.

From Wyoming County, New York, and Jackson County, Michigan, descendants of Ethiel Cushman have become widely dispersed. One or more families are now residing in the following states and one branch of the family has taken root in Canada:

Michigan	Florida	Illinois
New York	Alabama	Wisconsin
Rhode Island	Mississippi	Iowa
Connecticut	Texas	Minnesota
New Jersey	Arizona	North Dakota
District of Columbia	California	Montana
Pennsylvania	Nevada	Washington
Ohio	Colorado	British Columbia
Indiana	Kansas

When Ethiel's son Joseph married his schoolteacher bride at Ashburnham, Massachusetts, he brought her home to his father's farm at Rutland. The two families continued to live together under one roof until Ethiel's death in 1852, a period of thirty-five years. This span of years covered the residence of the two families on the Vermont farm, removal to New York and subsequent migration to the farm in Michigan.

In a letter written in 1897 by Charles Walker Cushman, a grandson of Ethiel and Anna, he commented: "It is the testimony of the recorder of this bit of history, who lived under the same roof with them from the time of his birth to the time of their death, that during my life I never have seen more devotion and consistent Christian living than was manifest in their lives."

Tradition has come down in the family that Ethiel Cushman was a kindly man, a hard worker and an exceptionally earnest student of the Bible.

His family Bible is now in my possession. On one leaf of the Bible in his own handwriting is inscribed:

On pages following he recorded births, deaths and marriages

occurring in his family and his son Joseph continued the records relating to his family.

One hundred twenty-eight years have elapsed since he bought the Bible. At that time he was forty-five years of age and was living on the farm in Vermont. One may imagine how he safeguarded his cherished Bible on the treks from the home-stead farm in Vermont to western New York and subsequently to the farm home in southern Michigan. When the Bible comes into possession of my grandson, William Mitchell Cushman, it will have been in possession of seven generations, each possessor being the elder surviving son.

Ethiel and Anna were both members of the Christian Church at Rutland, Vermont. Taking letters from that church, they united with the Presbyterian Church at Wyoming, New York. Then again by letter they united with the Presbyterian Church at Concord, Michigan.

Ethiel Cushman died on the farm in Pulaski Township, Jackson County, Michigan, February 27, 1852, eighteen days before his 82nd birthday. Anna, his wife, died September 17, 1848, at 76 years of age. They are buried in the cemetery south of Concord.

Since Ethiel resided at Rutland, Vermont, until he was about sixty years of age, the period covering the active part of his life, did not remain long at Wyoming and spent only his declining years at Pulaski, he is usually referred to as Ethiel Cushman of Rutland, Vermont.

When naming their children, Ethiel and Anna (Fenton) Cushman perpetuated family names on both sides of the house. They named their ten children as follows:

Isaac, for his paternal grandfather, Lt. Isaac Cushman.
Sarah Steele, for her maternal grandmother, whose maiden name was Sarah Steele.

Joseph Fenton, for his maternal grandfather, Lt. Joseph Fenton.
Lois, for her paternal grandmother, Lois -----.

Jennette, for her maternal grandmother's mother, whose maiden name was Jennet Barr, daughter of Matthew Barr of Hardwick, Massachusetts, who came from Balleymoney, county Antrim, Ireland.

Ethiel, for his father.

Anna, for her mother.

Eliza, (unknown)

Nancy L. (unknown)

Frederick H. (unknown)

It is quite obvious for whom the first seven of their children were named. Names of the last three, probably, were names of other grandparents, but whose identity has not been established.

BIOGRAPHY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

Since they named their first daughter Sarah Steele, the full maiden name of Anna's mother, one would expect them to have given to their second daughter the full maiden name of Ethiel's mother. They did name the child Lois, which was her mother's first name, but did not use her maiden name for the child's middle name. This circumstance was unfortunate, as it would have determined for later generations the maiden name of Ethiel's mother. Although not established by records or other evidence, consideration of the fact that the name Dillis was bestowed upon children in other families among her descendants, strongly suggests that maiden name of Ethiel's mother was Lois Dillis.

Their children and children's children continued to perpetuate these family names when naming their children. In one family the name of Jennette is borne by daughters in five successive generations. In the genealogy section may be found 32 descendants bearing the names of Ethiel's children, either as a first name, a middle name, or both. The surnames of Cushman and Fenton have likewise been perpetuated. Cushman has been bestowed upon 22 descendants as a middle name unto the seventh generation and seven descendants bear the name of Fenton, either as a first name or a middle name.

Ethiel Cushman was progenitor of at least 355 descendants. Total descendants probably exceeds this number, as all trace has been lost of four descendants who may have had children. The number of descendants in each generation, so far as has been ascertained, is indicated in the following tabulation:

Generation

1	Ethiel Cushman
2	10 children
3	18 grandchildren
4	35 great-grandchildren
5	67 great-great-grandchildren
6	138 great-great-great-grandchildren

8	4 great-great-great-great-great-grandchildren
	355

The people of the United States of America are a peace-loving race, but this World War II has produced a generation of fighting men---and women. Nearly all of the descendants of Ethiel Cushman who are eligible for service are in service. At least thirty members of the clan, including one Wave, as well as husbands of ten feminine descendants, are serving, or have served, in the Armed Forces of the United States or Canada. They are distributed in all branches of service and in all theaters of the war, the world over. I know I speak for all of us who are not in the service when I say we are proud of our valiant kinsmen who are fighting in defense of our homes and our way of life.

BIOGRAPHY OF ETHIEL CUSHMAN

It may be of interest to some among the descendants of Ethiel Cushman to know that Ethiel Cushman and President Roosevelt's mother, Sarah (Delano) Roosevelt, were third cousins, by reason of their great-grandfathers having been brothers. Ethiel Cushman's children and President Roosevelt, therefore, are fourth cousins.

Gathering names of the descendants of Ethiel Cushman and the vital statistics pertaining to each has required diligent and extensive correspondence with well over one hundred contemporary kinsmen. Considerable biographical material has been accumulated regarding many descendants, but scope of the work precludes incorporating so many individual biographies. That it has been possible to have assembled such comprehensive records relating to the numerous progeny of Ethiel Cushman has been due to the fine cooperation of the widely scattered members of the family, who have freely supplied data relating to their respective families. Full appreciation is hereby acknowledged. Let us hope that posterity will be grateful.

KEY TO GENEALOGY

A permanent number is assigned to each descendant. To trace the ancestry of an individual, find his, or her, number in the index. Turn to that number in the left-hand column in the genealogy. Heading the group of children is the father, or mother, whose name is preceded by a number in parenthesis (). Turn back to this number in the left-hand column in the preceding generation.

When a number in the left-hand column is preceded by the character #, it indicates that the individual bearing that number has children. The children of that individual may be found in the succeeding generation, tabulated under his, or her, name, but whose number now is enclosed in parenthesis.

Only descendants of Ethiel Cushman are indexed. Husbands and wives of descendants are not indexed. A married daughter is indexed by her married name. Her maiden name appears in parenthesis. If she is married more than once, she is indexed under each married name. Male descendants and female descendants are indexed in separate indexes.

When it is mentioned in the records that a person is living at a certain place, or is serving in the Armed Forces, it is to be understood that the statement is based on the latest information available in December, 1944.
